Immaculately presented, this captivating detached bungalow is a true gem nestled on a corner plot in a sought-after residential area.

Thoughtfully refurbished to an exceptional standard by the current owners, this former show-home exudes elegance and sophistication throughout. Offered with the added benefit of no onward chain, this inviting home boasts a charming walled garden adorned with wrought iron railings, setting the tone for the delights found within.

Boasting three bedrooms – two doubles and a generously proportioned single – this property offers versatility for those seeking additional space for a home office, hobby room or space for guests. The spacious lounge provides a welcoming ambience, with feature fireplace and windows to two elevations drinking in natural light, whilst a separate utility room and WC offer practicality whilst complementing the contemporary design aesthetic evident throughout the home. Warmth and comfort are assured with a Worcester condensing system boiler with cylinder and double-glazing present throughout, enhancing energy efficiency.

The heart of the property lies in the high-specification kitchen, equipped with a chic breakfast bar and top-of-the-range Neff appliances, making meal preparation a delight. The modern fitted kitchen seamlessly integrates into the conservatory, offering a functional layout designed for both ease of use and stylish appeal.

Step outside to discover a private, enclosed rear garden, complete with lush lawn, multiple patios, and a secluded walled breakfast area – perfect for al fresco dining or enjoying a morning coffee in peace. Landscaped gardens surround the property, basking in a sunny aspect that illuminates the exterior and creates a serene outdoor oasis.
